HOMETOWN HOLIDAY POPS

Ryan Tani, conductor
Milwaukee Symphony Chorus
Cheryl Frazes Hill, chorus director

Bring your entire family to the Bradley Symphony Center for Milwaukee's favorite holiday tradition! Celebrate the season with a musical jubilee of cherished classics and yuletide carols. Featuring the Milwaukee Handbell Ensemble and your one and only hometown orchestra.

Made possible with support from the We Energies Foundation

SUNDAY

MUSICAL VACATION!

Ryan Tani, conductor

Beat the winter blahs with the ultimate getaway to some warmer climates—through music! Experience a rodeo out West, travel to Hollywood with "Hedwig's Theme" from Harry Potter, dance along to the Conga del Fuego Nuevo in Mexico, experience Orlando (and Arendelle) with selections from Frozen, and more on this whirlwind musical journey!

MAR
16
2:30 PM

FREDERICK'S FABLES

Ryan Tani, conductor
First Stage

Join us for a modern musical take on some of the classic tales by beloved children's author and illustrator Leo Lionni. Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Michael Abels synchronizes words and music to tell magical tales and teach life-long lessons. First Stage joins the MSO to add their dramatic flair to the storytelling!

Add-on!

JUN
1

SENSORY FRIENDLY CONCERT

Sensory friendly concerts are designed for people of any age on the autism spectrum or with a sensory sensitivity and their families, but all are welcome! Concert modifications include dimmed house lights remaining on during the performance, flexible seating, relaxed house rules, on-stage hosts, available sensory kits, noise reduction headphones, quiet areas, concert social narratives, and more. Patrons are encouraged to come early and enjoy an hour of special pre-concert activities.
